

Hi there! This is my garden. I love to water my plants and take care of my fruits and vegetables. Sometimes sneaky bugs show up and try to chew on and destroy my plants! I really want to protect them, and I never use harmful pesticides to get rid of these pesky pests. Instead, I count on my other natural friends to help me protect my plants so they can grow strong and healthy. These coloring pages will help you learn more about these friends of mine.